Annual Index

Volume 38, 1993/94

INDEX BY TITLES

AIDS Activists and Pharmaceuticals: The Struggle for Common Ground, Ann Moravick, no. 1, p. 31
An 'Effective Yardstick' to Measure Public Relations Success, Walter K. Lindenmann, no. 1, p. 7
Breathing New Life into Old Standards, Marilyn Castaldi, no. 1, p. 41
Can Practitioners and Educators Agree on Research Needs and Sources?, William C. Adams, no. 3, p. 12
Can Public Relations Actually Move Product?, Isyssa Levins, no. 1, p. 18
CEOs Are a Breed Apart, Robert Marston, no. 3, p. 29
Competing in the '90s: What Business Wants and Needs From Public Relations Professionals, Gary F. Grates, no. 2, p. 20
Design Management: The Mystery and the Magic, Marla Decker, no. 3, p. 5
Early Focus on Issues Shapes Public Opinion, Mark A. Hart, no. 4, p. 43
Fifteen Ways to Win, Ronald N. Levy, no. 1, p. 20
Five Capital Offenses: How to Avoid Them, George Thomas Beall, no. 4, p. 15
Five Principles of Integrated Marketing, Carole M. Howard, no. 3, p. 35
How MPR Adds Value To Integrated Marketing Communications, Thomas L. Harris, no. 2, p. 13
How to Market Groundbreaking Products, David Domeshek, no. 3, p. 8
How to Survive and Prosper When It Hits the Fan, David Umansky, no. 4, p. 32
How to Win and Really Lose in Washington, Victor Kamber, no. 4, p. 5
Keys to Media Success, Robert J. Stone, no. 3, p. 46
Legal Implications of Public Relations for Unapproved Drugs, Stuart Lee Friedel and Michael C. Lasky, no. 1, p. 15
Let's Settle the Question of VNRs, George Glazer, no. 1, p. 43
Media Relations In the Eye of the Storm, Joseph V. Trahan III, no. 2, p. 31
NBC Learns a Lesson, Catherine Gates, no. 4, p. 40
New Ways to Break into Print Reliably and Often, Richard A. Lindeborg, no. 4, p. 25
Opinion, John F. Budd Jr., no. 1, p. 4
Personal Relations In Public Relations, Robert L. Gildea, no. 2, p. 47
Prelude to a Launch, Diana Dalsass, no. 1, p. 10
Prescription for New Product Introductions, Marcia Katz and Ken Rabin, no. 1, p. 12
Public Relations, Fund Raising and Marketing in Canadian Hospitals, Brent King and Judith Scrimger, no. 2, p. 40
Public Relations: Is It Dangerous to Use the Term?, Suzanne D. Sparks, no. 3, p. 27
Public Relations on the Screen: 17 Films to See, Larry Tavcar, no. 3, p. 21
Public Relations Photos...Beyond the Written Word, G. A. "Andy" Marken, no. 2, p. 7
Public Relations Scholarship In the German Speaking Countries, Carl Botan, no. 2, p. 36
Revitalizing a Healthcare Product for Today's Consumers, Frank Funaro, no. 1, p. 38
Reviving the Mature Product, M. J. Wyatt, no. 1, p. 33
Strategies for Improving Employee Relations by Using Performance Appraisals More Effectively, Nancy M. Somerick, no. 3, p. 37
Strategy for Success: Specialization, Sara Jean Thoms, no. 4, p. 45
Television Big Winner of '92 Election, '93 Presidency, Victor Kamber, no. 2, p. 26
The Bloomington Hospital Public Relations Department, Christina M. Shelton, Bernays Cup Recipient, no. 1, p. 25
The Fall of Corporate Charitable Contributions, Marc J. Epstein, no. 2, p. 37
The History of—Quote, Unquote—Public Relations, Alan K. Leahigh, no. 3, p. 24
The Public Relations Mandate in Health Care Reform, William A. Silverman, no. 4, p. 8
The Story of a Community Relations Fiasco, Sam Dyer, no. 2, p. 33
The United Technologies Communications Forum: How One Company Develops Its PR Managers, Donald K. Wright, no. 3, p. 17
Today the Goodyear Blimp, Tomorrow the Moon, Michael C. Andrews, no. 1, p. 39
Twelve Tips to Stretch Your Nonprofit Media Relations Dollar, Doug McPherson, no. 3, p. 41
Using Newsflow Analysis to Evaluate Media Coverage, Samuel Coad Dyer, no. 4, p. 35
Washington Wisdom, Ronald N. Levy, no. 4, p. 19
What Editors Want from Publicists—and When, Dick Elfenbein, no. 3, p. 14
When the AMA Joined Healthcare Reform, Robin M. Matell, no. 1, p. 35
Who's News in Washington, Jack O'Dwyer, no. 4, p. 10
Winning in Washington: From Grasstops to Grassroots, Mario Cooper, no. 4, p. 13
Word from Washington: New FTC Developments, Michael C. Lasky and Stuart Lee Friedel, no. 4, p. 29
You Can't Live by Brand Alone: Making Something Old Look New, Robert L. Chandler and George Drucker, no. 1, p. 36
You: Ready for Trouble?, Robert L. Dilenschneider, no. 1, p. 29

INDEX BY AUTHORS

William C. Adams, Can Practitioners and Educators Agree on Research Needs and Sources?, no. 3, p. 12
Michael C. Andrews, Today the Goodyear Blimp, Tomorrow the Moon, no. 1, p. 39
George Thomas Beall, Five Capital Offenses: How to Avoid Them, no. 4, p. 15
Carl Botan, Public Relations Scholarship In the German Speaking Countries, no. 2, p. 36
John F. Budd Jr., Opinion, no. 1, p. 4
Marilyn Castaldi, Breathing New Life into Old Standards, no. 1, p. 41
Robert L. Chandler and George Drucker, You Can't Live by Brand Alone: Making Something Old Look New, no. 1, p. 36
Mario Cooper, Winning in Washington: From Grasstops to Grassroots, no. 4, p. 13
Diana Dalsass, Prelude to a Launch, no. 1, p. 10
Marla Decker, Design Management: The Mystery and the Magic, no. 3, p. 5
Robert L. Dilenschneider, You: Ready for Trouble?, no. 1, p. 29
David Domeshek, How to Market Groundbreaking Products, no. 3, p. 8
Sam Dyer, The Story of a Community Relations Fiasco, no. 2, p. 33
Samuel Coad Dyer, Using Newsflow Analysis to Evaluate Media Coverage, no. 4, p. 35
Dick Elfenbein, What Editors Want from Publicists—and When, no. 3, p. 14
Marc J. Epstein, The Fall of Corporate Charitable Contributions, no. 2, p. 37
Stuart Lee Friedel and Michael C. Lasky, Legal Implications of Public Relations for Unapproved Drugs, no. 1, p. 15
Frank Funaro, Revitalizing a Healthcare Product for Today's Consumers, no. 1, p. 38
Catherine Gates, NBC Learns a Lesson, no. 4, p. 40
Robert L. Gildea, Personal Relations In Public Relations, no. 2, p. 47
George Glazer, Let's Settle the Question of VNRs, no. 1, p. 43
Gary F. Grates, Competing in the '90s: What Business Wants and Needs From Public Relations Professionals, no. 2, p. 20
Thomas L. Harris, How MPR Adds Value To Integrated Marketing Communications, no. 2, p. 13
Mark A. Hart, Early Focus on Issues Shapes Public Opinion, no. 4, p. 43
Carole M. Howard, Five Principles of Integrated Marketing, no. 3, p. 35
Victor Kamber, How to Win and Really Lose in Washington, no. 4, p. 5
Victor Kamber, Television Big Winner of '92 Election, '93 Presidency, no. 2, p. 26
Marcia Katz and Ken Rabin, Prescription for New Product Introductions, no. 1, p. 12
Brent King and Judith Scrimger, Public Relations, Fund Raising and Marketing in Canadian Hospitals, no. 2, p. 40
Michael C. Lasky and Stuart Lee Friedel, Word from Washington: New FTC Developments, no. 4, p. 29
Alan K. Leahigh, The History of—Quote, Unquote—Public Relations, no. 3, p. 24
Isyssa Levins, Can Public Relations Actually Move Product?, no. 1, p. 18
Ronald N. Levy, Fifteen Ways to Win, no. 1, p. 20
Ronald N. Levy, Washington Wisdom, no. 4, p. 19
Richard A. Lindeborg, New Ways to Break into Print Reliably and Often, no. 4, p. 25
Walter K. Lindenmann, An 'Effective Yardstick' to Measure Public Relations Success, no. 1, p. 7
G. A. "Andy" Marken, Public Relations Photos...Beyond the Written Word, no. 2, p. 7
Robert Marston, CEOs Are a Breed Apart, no. 3, p. 29
Robin M. Matell, When the AMA Joined Healthcare Reform, no. 1, p. 35
Doug McPherson, Twelve Tips to Stretch Your Nonprofit Media Relations Dollar, no. 3, p. 41
Ann Moravick, AIDS Activists and Pharmaceuticals: The Struggle for Common Ground, no. 1, p. 31
Jack O'Dwyer, Who's News in Washington, no. 4, p. 10
Christina M. Shelton, The Bloomington Hospital Public Relations Department, Bernays Cup Recipient, no. 1, p. 25
William A. Silverman, The Public Relations Mandate in Health Care Reform, no. 4, p. 8
Nancy M. Somerick, Strategies for Improving Employee Relations by Using Performance Appraisals More Effectively, no. 3, p. 37
Suzanne D. Sparks, Public Relations: Is It Dangerous to Use the Term?, no. 3, p. 27
Robert J. Stone, Keys to Media Success, no. 3, p. 46
Larry Tavcar, Public Relations on the Screen: 17 Films to See, no. 3, p. 21
Sara Jean Thoms, Strategy for Success: Specialization, no. 4, p. 45
Joseph V. Trahan III, Media Relations In the Eye of the Storm, no. 2, p. 31
David Umansky, How to Survive and Prosper When It Hits the Fan, no. 4, p. 32
Donald K. Wright, The United Technologies Communications Forum: How One Company Develops Its PR Managers, no. 3, p. 17
M. J. Wyatt, Reviving the Mature Product, no. 1, p. 33